

Capacity Building Roadshow

Autumn 2022

This event is for:

- Staff from Local Authorities and Local Authority Support Services
- Clinicians, managers, and senior staff from NHS & social care services
- Academic researchers, PhD students and undergraduates

Find out about research capacity building opportunities in the east of England

Tuesday 8 November 2022, 11 to 1pm

Online zoom event: Register here

Webinar programme

11.00 - 11.05 | Introduction and welcome Dr Eneida Mioshi, ARC EoE Deputy Director, University of East Anglia

11.05 - 11.15 | Overview of the Applied Research Collaboration East of England Professor Wendy Wills, ARC EoE Director, University of Hertfordshire

11.15 - 11.25 | What is the ARC Fellowship Programme? Research and Implementation opportunities Dr Christine Hill, ARC EoE Deputy Director, University of Cambridge

11.25 - 11.35 | What are Communities of Practice? (video animation)

11.35 - 12.05 | NIHR Academy training programmes Alice Clarkson, Senior Programme Manager – Infrastructure & Capacity Building Structures, NIHR Academy

12.05 - 12.15 | BREAK

12.15 - 12.25 | Experience of a previous ARC Fellow

Kate Head, Consultant Community Paediatrician, Cambridgeshire Community Services NHS Trust

12.25 - 12.35 | Health Education England Bridging Scheme Tina Jerosch-Herold, Co-Lead, Clinical Academic Career East (CLACEast), University of East Anglia

12.35 - 12.45 | How can the Research Design Service help you? David Wellsted, Associate Director & Research Adviser, University of Hertfordshire

12.45 - 1.00 | Q & A with speakers and networking (all)

Close | 1pm

The NIHR East of England is hosted by Cambridgeshire and Peterborough NHS Foundation Trust