

NIHR Research for Patient Benefit Programme (RfPB)

A NIHR Research Design Services (RDS) virtual information event

9th June 2020

Did you know?

You can apply for up to £150,000 from RfPB to fund an exploratory or developmental project?

You can also apply for funds for feasibility studies or full trials?

RfPB are keen to encourage new investigators and you can get funding for you and your team?

We are here to inform, help and guide you!

Our experienced and knowledgeable speakers will tell you all about RfPB and how to apply. We are pleased to welcome:

- Professor Tracey Sach, RfPB panel chair for East of England
- Simon Goodwin, RfPB programme manager for East of England
- Suzanne Murphy, an RDS lead who has recently completed an RfPB project
- Janine Hawkins & Jenny Whitty, recent successful RfPB applicants who will share their experiences and tips

These presentations will be pre-recorded and made available for viewing prior to a Q&A sessions with the speakers on 9th June at 1 p.m.

Following the presentations, you can also book a one-to-one virtual session with an RDS adviser from the East of England or South East, or with one of the RfPB programme managers
